

Allecia

hello, I'm Alecia

WITH HUMILITY, INTEGRITY AND FOR THE LOVE of children, I'd like to share my story and my life experiences. I'm so grateful for the possibility of adoption, and thank you from the bottom of my heart for considering me as a potential adoptive parent. I can't imagine what it must feel like reading through multiple profiles and trying to pick the right family for your child. I am honored and thankful that you are reading my profile and hope this gives you a small glimpse into my life. I know this isn't an easy decision, and I admire you for considering adoption and putting your child's needs ahead of your own. It has always been my plan to have a large family, and since I was unable to have children of my own; adoption was the right choice for me.

I grew up in Northeast Ohio in a small city, in a large tight-knit and loving family. I was raised by two amazing parents with strong morals, values, faith and unconditional love. Unfortunately, I recently lost my father. I have a bachelor's degree in business management. I have been a police officer for over 15 years and currently work as a Code Enforcement Officer. I also work part-time for Mission BBQ as a catering captain. I have always loved serving the community in which I live and helping those in need. I started my own non-profit organization, GOTL Police Benefit Association, to give back to those who serve and who were injured in the line of duty.

MY BIGGEST JOY IN LIFE CAME IN MAY 2021

when my daughter was born. I was chosen by two wonderful birth parents to become Jillana's mother and had the honor of adopting her officially a year later. She is the greatest gift that anyone could ever give. She is loving, funny, smart, silly, polite and very energetic. Due to my struggles with infertility and my daughter turning two, this was the right time to take the next step to adopt again. I know it takes a village to raise a child, and I have an incredible support system of family and friends to help me. My boyfriend, Jimmy, has been a huge support and has been a great father figure to Jilliana. We look forward to adding an additional baby into our family. I love traveling, cooking, baking, movies, concerts, amusement parks and couponing. Halloween and Christmas are my favorite holidays. My parents have always instilled in me to enjoy life and every adventure that comes. Adoption has truly changed my life, and I look forward to the addition of another child. I have loved every minute of the last two years watching my daughter grow. She was the missing piece in my life, and I look forward to her having a brother or sister.

I own my own home in a lovely mid-class neighborhood, safe suburb, approximately 25 miles from Cleveland. Large fenced in backyard. I have two dogs: Gizmo and Reese. I love animals and assisting at the local APL. I live in a family-oriented community with great schools, parks, trails and various activities. I love to volunteer in the community. I am the Vice-President of a nonprofit organization we created at the police department in which I work for during the summer months.

I am blessed to have such a wonderful family who have supported and loved me through this long journey. I am fortunate enough to have my mom, my boyfriend and close friends to lean on. I love having dinners, birthdays parties, holidays, football parties and various other social gatherings with all of them. I have family who live in the South and love visiting them at the beach. We enjoy watching movies, baking, shopping, traveling, re-finishing furniture and just hanging out as a family.

THANK YOU FOR TAKING THE TIME TO LEARN ABOUT

me and my life. It's hard to explain every detail in such a small space, but I hope this gives you some sort of idea of the life I have with Jilliana. My promise to you is to provide love, support, trust and protection to your child, if chosen. I'd love to have an open relationship with you and have you share in the life of your son or daughter if you so choose. To me, being a parent is laying down your life for your child and putting the needs of your child first and foremost. I promise to love, encourage, educate, teach with discipline, respect and kindness with a loving heart and open mind. I promise to keep him or her safe and instill the morals and values that I was raised with. I will challenge, create new opportunities, adventures, memories and wipe away tears and mend bruises along our journey in life. I will make each day count and count the many blessings we have, "Family." I will honor and cherish every special memory, sleepless night, dirty diapers, sweet giggles, and welcome your child and you into my life. I'm ready for whatever lies ahead. More than anything I want you to know that I will love your child unconditionally and will nurture him or her to grow up to be the best person that he or she can be. Thank you for choosing the gift of life for your child. Your sacrifice and decision of love will be celebrated every day.
