

Jodi

Hi, I'm Jodi, and this is Sawyer. I've always dreamed of having a family. I hoped to meet 'the one' but so far that time hasn't come. I've told myself that, I've never waited for a man to do anything else in my life, I don't need to wait now. I've gotten a Masters and a nursing degree, bought multiple vehicles, and own a home on my own. I can do this too.

Family

I am blessed to have three older brothers, my dad, and stepmom within just a few blocks and neighboring towns. We enjoy spending time together and helping each other with projects around our homes. Bringing a child into this family would be such a wonderful thing. We have so much love and support to give. I also have the most amazing friends, who are like family, within just a few blocks as well.

Career

I am a registered nurse in the surgery department at a local hospital. I've been in surgery for over 10 years and have definitely found my passion in nursing. I maneuvered myself to a position within my department where I can fulfill my passion for surgery and still maintain a regular 9 to 5 day shift position, which is difficult to do in this field. I've positioned myself to have that family I've always dreamed of.

Sawyer

One of my greatest loves of my life is my dog, Sawyer. He is the sweetest boy with the most wonderful and silly temperament. He's so good with everyone he meets, just brings a smile to your face. I tell him all the time that I love him, and he's going to make the best big brother. We go on walks everyday. We love to be outside and go on adventures together.

Home

I live in a one-and-a-half story home with four bedrooms and a large backyard. Lots of room for adventures and exploration. Within my block alone there are 15 plus kids and counting to play with and create memories. There are also four local parks, a pool, and an excellent school system within our small town.

I want to thank you for taking the time to get to know Sawyer and me. I can't imagine how incredibly difficult this decision has been for you. I hope after reading my profile you can see I have a lot of love to give and the most amazing family and friends to support us. Relationships are complicated, and I want to make sure you are comfortable with your decision now and in the future. Whether it is with open communication and visits, or small updates through the years, or little to no contact. I will do my best to understand the needs of everyone involved. You have given your child the most amazing gift, life. I would be honored and humbled to be this child's mom. I look forward to providing a life full of love, support, adventure, and laughter.
