

Arianna + Adam

Hey there! We are Adam & Arianna.

First off, we appreciate your time in getting to know us. Our story together officially started in 2015 when we met through the Internet. We lived two hours away from each other, but the distance only made us fonder. When we merged our lives, we knew we had found our other "half." We dated for a year, and our love continued to flourish. We married in 2017, and our wedding day was one of the most magical days of our lives. Surrounded by love, we professed our commitment to each day to "wake up falling in love again." We purchased our first home in 2018 and have enjoyed tweaking it to reflect us. Considering each other as best friends, we enjoy going on walks with our pups, playing video and board games, hiking, and going to concerts.

adoption

WE ALWAYS KNEW WE WANTED TO ADOPT a child, and this dream was put on hold for a while, but our love and determination only grew stronger. In 2020, after overcoming a mild heart attack and embracing her resilience, Arianna has emerged stronger and more vibrant, ready to channel her renewed energy and vitality into motherhood. We knew that we still wanted to build a family, but Arianna's congenital medical condition makes pregnancy a high-risk endeavor. Medical professionals have advised us to explore alternative paths to parenthood, ensuring a safe and healthy journey for our growing family, and adoption became the path we were meant to take. We are now thrilled to be on this journey, eager to welcome a little one into our lives and share our love, laughter, and adventures with them. Our connection has created a rock-solid base, and we're now ready to cultivate a family that will flourish in its embrace.

Adam

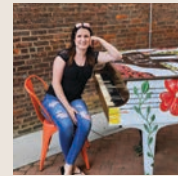

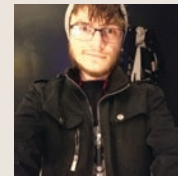

Arianna

Ever the jokester, Adam enjoys making others laugh and is a bit of a class clown. His sense of humor makes his approach towards life light-hearted and fun. Adam's introverted persona is a masterful blend of wry wit, clever observation, and subtle humor, often hiding a sharp comedic mind behind a reserved exterior. Ever the tech-savvy whiz, he can be found tinkering on the Internet. He is an IT professional, and with his knack for making technology work for him, and those around him, he's the go-to guy for tech solutions. In the digital realm, Adam finds his happy place, where he can immerse himself in the stories of a variety of video games. He enjoys anime and manga, the lore of mythology, and watching horror or thriller films. His childhood passion for pro wrestling has followed him into adulthood. Having faced the loss of his father at a tender age, Adam is now driven to provide a sense of permanence and belonging to his children through adoption, creating a loving and unconditional family bond.

As an early childhood educator with a role as an intervention specialist to provide individualized support and inclusive environments that foster development and growth for all children, Arianna is eager to bring this expertise into the role of parenting, ensuring that her child feels safe, supported, and empowered to thrive. She has been a teacher for eight years with five years specifically in an integrated preschool setting and is currently working on a master's degree in curriculum and instruction. She has a variety of hobbies. A big love of hers is literacy and language. Considered a fast reader, typist, and writer, she enjoys reading a variety of genres and hopes to be a published author someday. She loves music – all kinds! As a self-taught pianist, she has appreciated music from a very young age. She tries to go to concerts every year. Art, in general, is a passion, and she dabbles in a variety of mediums and crafts. She is an avid collector of Alice in Wonderland themed items as it brings a sense of wonder and whimsicality, and her collection has grown impressive! She is excited to share her love of learning and creativity with a child, and to create a home filled with wonder, curiosity, and endless possibilities.

pups / home

WE ARE THE PROUD PUP PARENTS OF THREE DOGS: Leo, Winnie, and Banjo. Leo is an 11-year-old Beagle/Austrian cattle mix. His gentle and patient spirit makes him a soothing presence in the house. He has been Adam's companion since before the day Arianna and Adam met. Winnie, Arianna's loyal and lovable six-year-old Beagle/Dachshund mix, reigns supreme as the household princess, bringing a dash of sass and sparkle, and proving that even the smallest of furry friends can hold the biggest of royal attitudes! Banjo, the newest addition to the household, is a full-blooded Corgi who is not afraid to let you know he is there! People-oriented, goofy, and fun: he has added a new charm to the house.

Welcome to our loving home! We've carefully crafted a warm and inviting space that is our haven. Our cozy ranch-style home is filled with natural light, hardwood floors, and plenty of room to play. The three-bedroom is perfect for our growing family, while the partially finished basement offers endless possibilities for family time. Our fenced-in backyard and covered front porch provide a safe and peaceful environment for outdoor adventures. Our kitchen remodel is more than just a renovation - it's a testament to our teamwork as a couple. With the help of our family, we poured our hearts into every detail.

thank you

Where do we even begin to express our gratitude? From the depths of our hearts, we want to thank you for the selfless, loving, and courageous decision you are making in this weighted choice for your precious child. You have given us the greatest gift imaginable - the chance to build a family and experience the joy of parenthood. Your strength and love are awe-inspiring. We can only imagine the emotions navigated, and we want you to know that we honor and respect your journey. Your decision is a testament to the love you have for your child, and if chosen, we promise to nurture and cherish that love every day. Thank you for considering us. We look forward to sharing our journey with you.
