

Dom & Dom

Hello and welcome! We are the Doms, a fun-loving couple from Northeast Ohio ready to grow our family. Our journey together began in the vibrant city of Chicago in 2017, and after an unforgettable adventure in Las Vegas, we've returned to our roots in Cleveland, where we're surrounded by a strong network of family and friends who provide endless love and support. Married since November 2022, we've always known that our greatest dream is to become parents. We shared this dream on our very first date, and over the years, it's only grown stronger. Currently, our home is filled with the joy and laughter of five amazing fur babies, but we know our family will be complete when we welcome home our first child.

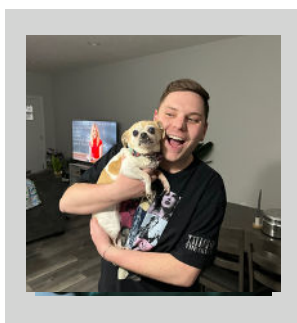

We are honored and excited to be on this journey, and we want you to know that we are open and supportive of an open adoption. Whether it's sharing photos and updates, or even planning visits, we're happy to maintain a connection in whatever way feels right to you. Most of all, we are committed to supporting you however we can—throughout this process and beyond. Thank you for considering us as part of your adoption journey—we can't wait to embrace the future and all the love it holds.

Domenic

Dominic

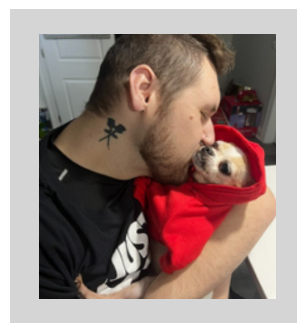

Hey there! I'm Domenic — 30, born and raised in Wickliffe, Ohio, and currently living life with a full heart and a dream coming true as my husband and I begin our adoption journey.

I work in the mental health field, which fits perfectly with who I am: super empathetic, always ready to listen, and a big believer in showing up for people. I'm also a volleyball coach, a father to 5 fur babies, love to travel, and I'm a big Swiftie and music lover.

I come from an incredibly loving and supportive family — the kind that gives the best hugs, is always ready to help, and has so much love to share. Hosting family parties is one of my favorite things (there's always something to celebrate), and I proudly wear the title of house chef — feeding people is definitely my love language. Even if there is 2 of us, I will be cooking for 15.

At my core, I'm a lover — of people, connection, and all of life's little joys. Becoming a parent has always been a dream, and I can't wait to share all this love and laughter with a child someday. I'm also deeply committed to being as open as the mother needs me to be and will offer my full support throughout this journey and beyond. Whether that means sharing updates, staying connected, or simply being a steady presence, I'm here to honor and respect whatever level of openness feels right for her.

Hey! I'm Dominic — 33, originally from Chicago, and living every day with gratitude as my husband and I begin this incredible adoption journey together.

I'm a daycare teacher and absolutely love what I do. I've always been passionate about helping children grow, learn, and feel truly seen. Working with kids comes naturally to me — and honestly, they teach me just as much as I teach them. Whether it's a silly dance party, a big milestone moment, or just offering comfort when someone needs it, I'm always reminded how special and meaningful this work is.

People often say I give the best hugs and that I have a big heart — and it's true, I've got a lot of love to give. I've always dreamed of marrying the man of my dreams and raising a child together... and I'm still in awe that dream is becoming real. Every single day, it fills me with joy and purpose.

Becoming a parent has been in my heart for as long as I can remember, and I can't wait to pour love, patience, laughter, and encouragement into a little one's life. I'm also fully open to whatever level of connection feels right for the birth mother—whether that means sharing photos, visits, or staying in touch over time. I'm here to support her in any way I can, with empathy, respect, and an open heart.

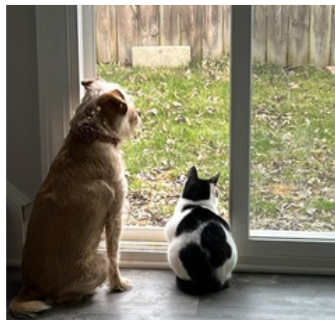

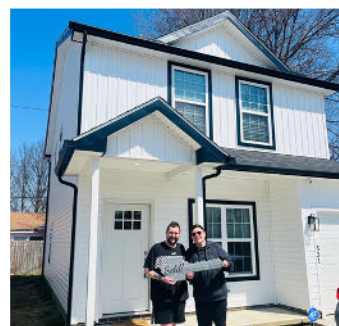

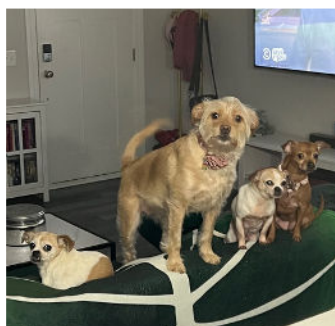

Home

We live in a safe, family-friendly neighborhood in Eastlake, Ohio, just seconds from beautiful Lake Erie. It's full of tradition, great schools, and lots of kids playing outside — a perfect place to raise a child. Our home was built in 2022 and is filled with love (and a little pet fur!). We live with our four sweet dogs — Shuggs, Angela, Mocha, and Peach — and our cat, Moo Moo. They're gentle, playful, and a big part of our family.

Domenic's family lives nearby, and we spend lots of time together. He comes from a close, loving family of five — his supportive parents, Kathy and Joe, and two older sisters, Christina and Maria, who are also his best friends. Joe and Christina are attorneys, and Maria is an ER nurse and mom to Domenic's nephew, DJ, who turns 2 in January 2026. Domenic also has three living grandparents excited to welcome a new baby.

Dominic is originally from Chicago and is very close with his mom, Michele, and stepdad, Mark, who now live in Tennessee. Michele is a passionate educator, and Mark works in medical sales. Domenic also has a loving brother, Anthony, and four living grandparents who are thrilled about this journey.

We both come from Italian families that love to cook, eat, and celebrate life. Our home is full of warmth, laughter, and tradition — and we can't wait to share all of that with a child.

Thanks

We want you to know that, with every part of our being, we are ready to embrace this child with all the love and care they deserve.
