

VINCE and KATIE

Our Story

An introductory floor meeting in a college dorm room turned into our greatest memory. We were randomly assigned neighboring dorms at Cleveland State University and the rest is history. We spent the first two years of knowing each other as great friends. We were able to lean on each other as we navigated our new world away from the homes we had always known.

Our incredible friendship grew into a beautiful love story. We have been together for 10 years and married for 3 years. We have a sweet fur-baby corgi, Samson who is 5 years old.

We are so fortunate to be surrounded by love in so many ways. Vincent grew up with two younger siblings and two parents who have been happily married for years. Both of Vincent's younger siblings have found partners and have given us a beautiful niece and two handsome nephews. Katie grew up with one older brother and two parents who have been happily married for years. We are both lucky enough to have large extended families who cannot wait to welcome in another family member with open arms and endless unconditional love.

The decision to adopt was in our hearts long before we were married. We have built an incredible life and we can't wait to welcome a child into it. We promise to give your child an incredible upbringing that we hope will lead them to become a confident and kind person. They will be welcomed into our large, warm family who will nurture their mind, body and soul. We promise to devote ourselves to showering your child with affection and providing them with endless opportunities. We will be patient, compassionate and cheer them on every day as they discover who they are.

We promise that your child will know that you and your courage and bravery are the first page of their amazing story.

About Us

We own a home in a quiet suburban neighborhood in Ohio. Our house sits on a cul-de-sac and has a bright open kitchen and living room, four bedrooms, and a half acre back yard. We live in an excellent school district and are surrounded by parks and playgrounds.

We spend most mornings snuggled up with our pup reading books and drinking coffee. We love to spend the evenings cooking and baking. We enjoy going for walks around our neighborhood or a local park on nice days and binge watching TV shows or movies on gloomy days.

Vince is an avid outdoorsman and enjoys going fishing, hunting, and golfing. Katie spends her free time crafting and baking. We both enjoy travelling whenever we have the chance.

We LOVE holidays and birthdays, especially Christmas. We decorate as early as we can in the year and thoroughly enjoy spending the holiday season giving back to our community in any way that we can.

Our house is so full of love at the holidays. And of course, our Christmas wouldn't be complete without the hand crafted matching Christmas PJs that Katie makes for our families.

Our families are our greatest support system, and we are incredibly fortunate to have them in our lives. Both sides of our family get along wonderfully, sharing a bond that is built on mutual respect, love, and a lot of laughter. Family gatherings are always filled with joy, whether it's a holiday celebration, a weekend barbecue, or just a casual get-together. Our parents, siblings, and extended family members are all eager to welcome a new addition, and they are ready to provide endless love, guidance, and support. We truly believe that it takes a village to raise a child, and our village is filled with caring, compassionate, and loving individuals who can't wait to be a part of this journey with us.

What I love about...

VINCE

What I love most about my husband is his incredible sense of humor. He has a unique ability to make me laugh, even on the toughest days, and his playful spirit brings so much joy into our lives. Beyond his humor, he is one of the hardest working people I know. His dedication and commitment to everything he does, whether it's his career or our home, is truly inspiring. But what stands out the most is his loving nature. He is kind, compassionate, and always puts our family first. His love is the foundation of our home, and I am grateful every day for the warmth and support he brings into our lives.

What I love about...

KATIE

What I love most about my wife is her selflessness. She always puts others before herself, whether it's family, friends, or even strangers in need. Her compassion knows no bounds; she has a remarkable ability to empathize with others and offer comfort and support. Her strength is truly inspiring. No matter what challenges come her way, she faces them with grace and resilience. She is the rock of our family, providing unwavering love and stability. Her kindness, courage, and unwavering dedication make her the incredible person she is, and I am endlessly grateful to share my life with her.

Special Note...

Thank you for taking the time to learn about our lives and dreams. We are so grateful to you as a birth mom. You are truly incredible. We can tell how incredible you are because you have chosen this path for you and your child. We are grateful for your courageous decision and for learning more about us. Our child will know how your profound love and bravery made us a family. We would love to maintain contact and have a continued relationship with you.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO CONNECTING WITH YOU
