

Patrick & Shannon

about our family

We became friends while both volunteering with a High School ministry called Young Life. After years of close friendship, we began dating and in March 2022 we got married. We live in Beavercreek, Ohio in a quiet neighborhood with friendly neighbors. We have a 2 year old coonhound named Meechie who we adore! Our son, Arlo, was born in February of 2025. After a pregnancy loss in 2024, Arlo has been such a beautiful blessing. He is outgoing, curious, and easily goes with the flow.

Our family is funny, honest, caring, and devoted to one another. Spending quality time together is important to us both so we like to go have fun as a family whenever we can! We enjoy going to sporting events, taking trips to the beach, and spending time with friends. What truly anchors our lives is our faith in Jesus. We attend a local church on Sundays that we really enjoy being a part of.

We have both always wanted to adopt children into our family and are excited to grow our family. We feel a deep sense of love and respect for the opportunity to provide a child with a safe and loving home. We believe that openness in adoption is a way to do that, and we're committed to maintaining a connection that supports your child.

Patrick

I joined the Air Force out of High School. After 6 years of active duty, I finished my degrees and now work as a contract manager for GE Aerospace. I also coach varsity volleyball at Beavercreek High School.

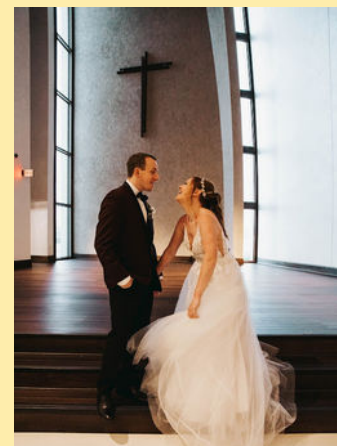

I love coaching and building effective teams. My other hobbies include crossfit, playing volleyball and watching NFL football. I love my family & friends dearly, and want the people I care about to thrive. I hope to provide for others the way God has provided for me.

According to Shannon "Patrick is the most hardworking and steadfast person I know. He is also so fun-loving. This combination makes him such an incredible Dad and a wonderful husband"

Shannon

I worked as a school counselor and clinical counselor for 8 years before deciding to stay at home with our son in July 2025. I enjoy being with friends, doing crossword puzzles, and baking. I'm an extrovert through and through and I love having people over, whether it's for dinner or a weekend stay. Spending my days with Arlo and our dog Meechie is very fulfilling for me, and I love finding fun things for us to do every day.

According to Patrick "Shannon is a charming, warm, loving person. Shannon is hilarious, and weaves humor and depth into every interaction. She is and will continue to be an outstanding wife & mother.

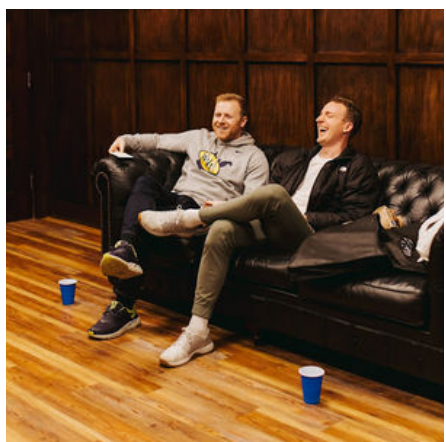

friends + family

People are really important to us. We are blessed to have our best friends living right around the corner with their two young children. Shannon's mom lives 10 minutes away and Patrick's parents live in Cincinnati. Our parents have loved being grandparents already and are excited for us to continue to grow our family!

traditions

Holidays and celebrations are a large part of our lives! We love making a big deal out of everyone's birthday and celebrating for days. We spend time with Patrick's family at Christmas and travel to Virginia to see Shannon's family on Thanksgiving. That is one of our favorites, playing football, eating good food, and going to an amusement park on Black Friday
