

Sarah & Christian

Our story began in 2016, when we met and quickly became good friends. Over time, and after each of us pursued other jobs, our friendship continued to grow. In 2018, that friendship turned into a loving relationship. We got engaged in 2021 and were married in December 2023.

From the beginning, we bonded over our shared love of Cleveland sports, music, and comedy. We truly enjoy spending time together and value connection, laughter, and making memories. Most weekends are spent with family and extended family, relaxing at home, or heading out to a comedy show or concert. We share a strong partnership built on friendship, joy, and support, and we look forward to building a loving family together.

We recognize the strength it takes to choose this path, and we honor that journey. We are open to an ongoing connection that includes sharing photos, memories, and visits, and continuing a relationship built on trust, respect, and care.

Sarah

I grew up in a small town in Northeast Ohio with my mom and older sister, spending our time traveling across North America to compete in Irish Dance competitions with our Grandparents. Making memories and learning life lesson that will last forever.

I am a project manager by day, which means I love planning, problem-solving, and making sure everyone feels supported along the way. By nights and weekends, I am family first, usually found at the kids' table, laughing, coloring, and fully in my element. I love getting lost in a good book, spending quality time with friends, and soaking up the everyday moments that make life special.

Christian

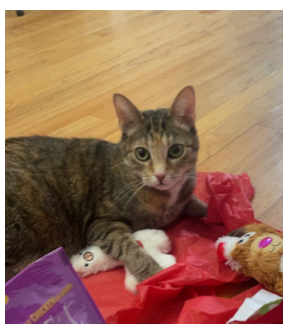

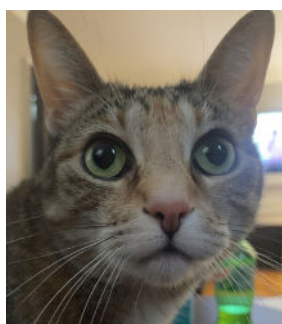

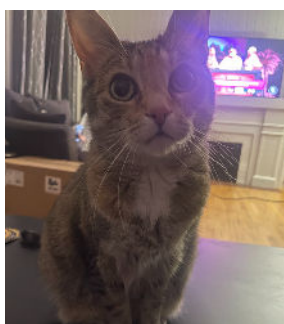

I grew up in Warren with my parents and younger brother, spending our time at Cleveland sporting events, camping, visiting historical sites, and being with family. Those roots stuck, I'm still a loyal Browns, Buckeyes, Guardians, and Cavs fan.

By day, I work in management, where I enjoy helping others grow both personally and professionally. Outside of work, you'll usually find me joking with friends and family, grilling on the patio, tackling projects around the house, or diving into something new just for the fun of learning. Food is another passion of mine, I love trying new things and sharing them with others.

Home

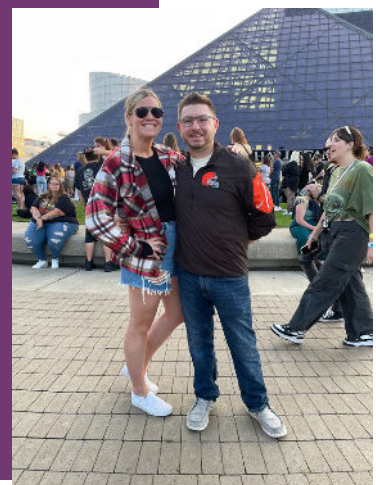

We live in a family-friendly suburb of Cleveland in a neighborhood where kids can play, neighbors connect, and summers are spent at the community pool. Our four-bedroom split-level home sits on just under half an acre, providing plenty of space for backyard games, exploring, and everyday adventures. Inside, there's room for bedtime stories, toys, and peaceful moments, while outside, we enjoy hosting family and friends for gatherings filled with laughter. Our home is also shared with our beautiful, gentle cat, who is always nearby for companionship. It's a safe, happy place where a child can feel loved, supported, and truly at home.

Thanks

We cannot begin to understand the courage and love it takes to choose adoption. The thoughtfulness and selflessness behind such a decision are truly remarkable. We hope to honor that love by providing a home filled with laughter, support, and warmth, and by celebrating every moment with joy and care.

With love,
Sarah & Christian
