OUR STORY

We've known each other since middle school but truly found our way to one another in our early 20s. What began as friendship grew into a steady, joyful love that feels deeply rooted and true. Together for 8 years and married for 4, we've built a life we're proud of—a warm home shared with our dog, Parker, and our cat, Delilah, who bring us daily laughter and love.

We're surrounded by a close, supportive community of family and friends, and that sense of connection means everything to us. Adoption has been in our hearts for 2 years. It's a decision shaped by love and intention, and one we're ready for. We've built a strong marriage and a nurturing home where a child can feel safe, supported, and deeply loved.

DEAR BIRTH PARENTS

We promise to offer your child unconditional love, support, and encouragement. They will grow up in a family ready to celebrate who they are and walk beside them through every stage of life. We will be their biggest cheerleaders, especially on the hard days, and provide a home filled with both joyful laughter and quiet, comforting moments.

Most of all, we promise to honor your place in their story. Your child will always know how deeply they are loved by you, and that your decision was made with immense courage, selflessness, and love.

We are also open to further communication. Whether that be pictures, text messages or emails. Know that door is open for discussion.

Us

We live in a quiet Ohio neighborhood in a warm, welcoming 3-bedroom, ranch style home with a finished basement. Our days are simple and meaningful, centered on time together—shared meals, cozy nights in, and time with the people we love. Casey loves being outdoors, music, and staying active. Zoe enjoys cooking, tending to her plants, and creating a peaceful home. Together, we treasure traveling when we can, music festivals, and finding joy in laughter.

Our family and friends are incredibly close and deeply supportive. Throughout our adoption journey, we've been surrounded by encouragement and love, and it brings us comfort knowing a child would join a strong, caring, open-hearted community.

WHAT I LOVE ABOUT CASEY

What I love most about my husband is his selflessness. He's always there for others—whether helping a neighbor or supporting me on a hard day. His humor and lighthearted spirit fill our home with joy, and he makes me laugh every day. He's hardworking, loving, and shows his care in small ways—a hug at the door, flowers for no reason, and a kindness I can always count on. I feel incredibly lucky to share my life with him.

WHAT I LOVE ABOUT ZOE

What I love most about my wife is her compassion and understanding. She listens without judgment and has a way of making even hard days feel manageable. She creates a warm, welcoming home through simple, thoughtful moments, and life feels calmer and more peaceful with her. Zoe cares deeply for others, and friends and family know they can always count on her kindness and support.
