

Rachel & Jared

Our Story

We met in 2019 and fell in love almost immediately. From the beginning, our relationship was easy and natural. Once we were married, we couldn't wait to start a family.

We always dreamed of having multiple children. After several painful years of trying to get to the bottom of our infertility issues, we realized God was calling us on a different path. Thankfully, being open to adoption was something we had discussed before marriage.

We were blessed with our son, Carter, in 2025 and life hasn't been the same (in the best of ways) since! We are so grateful to his birthmother for choosing us to be his parents! We dedicate our whole lives to raising our son and can't imagine life without him! We are beyond excited to hopefully add another child to our family!

We can't imagine how hard of a decision this is for you. We admire you and support you!

Carter

Carter is the sweetest little boy! We are really excited to see his personality develop even more as we enter the toddler years. He loves to play with other kids! Seeing the pure joy on his face helps us know he will be an amazing big brother and we can't wait to see him in that role.

Jared According to Rachel

Jared is by far one of the best people I know, and I thank God every day for him. He's calm, down-to-earth, and can make anyone laugh. Whether in his HR career or at home, he shows kindness, loyalty, and dedication. Watching him become an incredible dad to Carter has been one of my greatest joys in life. The love and laughter they share is precious. He's a devoted family man with a positive attitude who lives each day to the fullest, and I know he is someone who we can always count on!

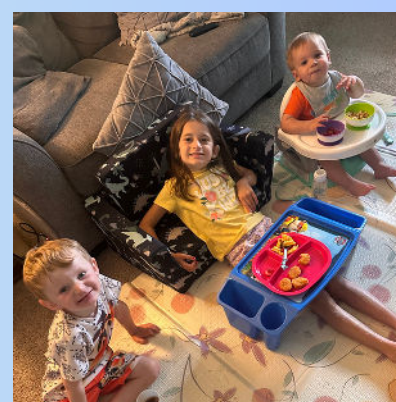

Rachel According to Jared

Rachel has always been a mother at heart. She is: loving, caring, understanding, motivated, funny, and always giving. She's devoted her life to caring for kids from becoming a school teacher and previously being a camp counselor and youth minister. She is very family-oriented, and it has been amazing to see her take care of Carter. She is one of the best people I know, and I am proud to call her my wife. I know with her by my side, we can overcome everything that is thrown our way.

Family is Everything

Our family has been extremely supportive throughout our journey. We are both blessed with very hands-on parents and siblings who have always been very involved in our lives! Carter's grandparents, aunts, and uncle show him nothing but unconditional love and support. They can't wait for another addition to the family! We live near both of our extended families and see them often. You can often find us getting together for dinner, outings, the kids life events like TBall and dance recitals, or just relaxing.

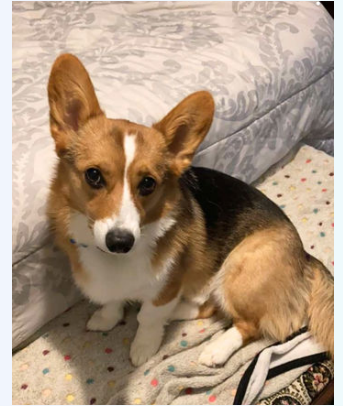

Our Home

We live in a small suburban town not far from the countryside, lakeside, or the city. There is always something to do year-round! Our quiet neighborhood is close to stores, parks, and our church. We have lots of land on our property for kids to run around and make memories!

♥ Meet Our Fur Babies! ♥

They are the sweetest dogs, so gentle and loving towards everybody. Carter loves to play and cuddle with them. He gets super excited to see them when we walk in the door.

Our Promise to You

We will love your child as our own! They will grow up knowing their story and that their birthmother loves them very much! We want you to feel comfortable and are open to having a relationship with you and letting that relationship naturally grow. We will always be there for our children to cheer them on and support their interests and talents. They will be raised with strong morals and values. Our job is to help them find their path in life and be with them through it all!

WE LOOK FORWARD TO CONNECTING WITH YOU
