

Will & Bri

Daily Life

Our life is centered around faith, family, serving others, and, of course, The Ohio State Buckeyes!

Bri works in adaptive and inclusive recreation, creating programs for individuals with disabilities, a career she truly feels God led her to. Outside of work, she loves spending time with family, traveling, and caring for her ever-growing collection of plants, a hobby that became especially meaningful during our journey to grow our family.

Will owns a financial advising business in our hometown and loves helping others reach their goals. He also serves as a deacon at our church and, when he isn't working or serving, you can usually find him on the golf course.

No matter how busy life gets, we make time for what matters most—our faith, each other, family, friends, and hopefully one day, our children.

What We Believe

Our Christian faith is an important part of our lives and the foundation we hope to build our family upon. We plan to attend church together, pray as a family, and teach our children to love and care for others. Our church also has a wonderful foster and adoption community, giving our family another circle of support and connection.

Family

Our families are different in many ways, but both are incredibly supportive and excited to welcome a child into our lives. Will's family loves adventure, traveling, and celebrating life's big and small moments—we even celebrate “birth weeks” instead of just birthdays! Bri's family is big and full of personality, with five sisters and lots of nieces and nephews, so family gatherings are always filled with laughter, conversation, and kids playing together.

Between holidays, birthdays, family gatherings, and spontaneous get-togethers, family is a big part of our lives. We feel incredibly lucky knowing our future child will grow up surrounded by grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and so many people ready to love and support them.

Hopes and Dreams

We dream of raising our children in a life centered around faith, family, and community. We hope they grow up enjoying the outdoors, sports, church, travel, and meaningful time with the people they love. Most importantly, we want to give them a life filled with love, adventure, strong values, and memories they will carry forever.

We want our children to always know they are loved, wonderfully created, and have a beautiful purpose.

A note from...

WILL

Thank you for taking the time to learn a little more about us and the life we hope to build with your child. I have a tremendous amount of respect for you and the decision you are considering. If we are chosen, my goal is pretty simple. I want to be a dad who is always there. I want to teach them, encourage them, laugh with them, take them on adventures, and help them become the person God created them to be. I want our home to be a place where they always feel safe, supported, and loved. More than anything, I want them to grow up knowing that they are deeply loved, that our family will always be in their corner, and that we will never take for granted the gift of getting to be their parents.

A note from...

BRI

I cannot begin to imagine all the emotions in your heart as you consider what is ahead for you and your child. As someone who hopes so deeply to become a mother, I have so much respect for the love, strength, and courage behind the decisions you are making. If you choose us, it would be an incredible honor to love and care for your child. I promise to encourage their dreams, celebrate every little milestone, and stand beside them through every high and low. I hope to give them a childhood filled with laughter, adventure, and memories they will carry with them forever. Most importantly, they will always know where they came from, how deeply you love them, and that you will forever be an important part of their story.

Special Note...

Thank you for getting to know us. We know this must be extremely overwhelming for you but we are thankful you took the time to read our story. No matter how close or far we are from each other, or the relationship we may have... we want them to know where they came from and who this amazing, strong, and loving woman you are too. We know this may be one of the hardest things you will ever do in your life, but we want you to know that it doesn't go unseen. We love, support and pray for you more than you know! There is no greater gift than the gift of life. No matter what decision you make in the end, we want you to know that you are loved and we have been praying for you.
